

I believe that the Indiana Privacy Law is one of the few things that the Indiana legislation has done to positively impact my life. My unwanted calls have gone from about 5 per night to none, except for during the political campaign. Don't dilute the Indiana Privacy law.
My phone is for communications not solisitation.